As transparent and comprehensible as this process was for everyone, it was also extremely tedious, and tested the patience of MPs, journalists and viewers alike. Therefore, it would be necessary to learn from the development of modern capitalism but at the same time to avoid its unrestrained competition and enormous existential pressure.

In short, they preferred a third way between western capitalism and soviet socialism.
This video material, spanning more than hours, is available to the public, cf. Although the Members of Parliament Act Abgeordnetengesetz passed through the parliament in two readings, there was no debate on either occasion. Why this endeavour was unable to leave its mark in politics, I will discuss in the final section.
