Please don't make me go with him. Let me stay here. I'll be good. I promise. I wish he'd died instead of my mom. "Because your mom told me a big secret.

Mum, the last time we talked, you told me you were gay. I did not realise it was to be our final conversation - I thought we would have some time.

A few months later, my father gave me her laptop. I needed a new computer and was grateful to have it. But its contents - photos from trips.
