RossThompsonhasgreatbreadthofknowledge. Bread Not Stones Una Kroll Spiritual autobiography of a truly remarkable Buddhist Christianity: A Passionate Openness and a history of the struggle for ordination in the Church of England. This book is a theological exploration of this two-fold allegiance, in which Thompson attempts to show that Buddhist Christian dual belonging is both legitimate and beneficial. Having journeyed from the Christianity of his childhood, through atheism, teenage Buddhism, and Christian ministry, Thompson explains that he has now arrived at a sense of unconditional allegiance to both Christianity and Buddhism, despite seeing real differences between .
