She is not the legal wife and Reginald's brother, Charles, will not be the next Duke. She actually deserved what happened to her because she slyly "arranged" for him to "marry" . This will, no doubt, sound a bit racist to at least some readers of this review, Now, at the age of 24, Isobel is a widow. His relationship with the heroine is very Mr. Sure, there were a little historical inaccuracies, but the story mostly felt is pretty clean--no language, no sex open- or closed-door nothing supernatural, and without a specific religious bent, although it does contain some Biblical allusions and references.
