He also had an interesting evening with Kyana that I found very entertaining. Being Zeus, the god of gods keeps him from being on the battle field as .

And really the only thing I did like about it was that it was well enough written. In this book we see and feel the pain and emotional turmoil of her past. Cronos is digging up graves to bring the deceased back to life and build his army. It is hopefully indicative that Arte's suggestion for the palaces of the God of Gods and the Goddess of the Hunt, be joined and shared have been taken onboard.

I was quite busy when I started this book and regretted not being able to finish out this and the last book, they were constantly getting jumped on out of the blue by the bad guys, and suddenly losing their trail. The action was fast and the team takes at least one brutal emotional hit.
