The questions the essay will answer are, what is the political significance of Idia in Benin dynastic history? Bronze is reserved for royalty, meaning only the Oba king and the Iyoba queen mother can commission artwork in this medium.

The altar of the hand, also called dikegobo, therefore celebrates this concept. Retrieved from "https: At the start of the 21st century, queen mothers are seeing a resurgence in power and influence in Africa.

She kept this ill-health secret and took charge of political administration. The office of the Iyoba was created out of political expediency, it did not have a primeval model. So acute is the dearth of information, particularly documentary evidence, that some of the outstanding women in history have been mistaken for men and their achievements, attributed to male rulers!
