I give this This book is by an adult sexual abuse victim, who shot and killed her abuser, her father, at age How sad it is that those she admitted the abuse to either didn't understand what she was saying because she was too young for the words or, they weren't properly trained to handle such an admission. I know that a lot of memoirs like these are ghostwritten more often than not, but the ghostwriters are never that great. SouthKoreanpresidentlandsinNorthKoreaforlatestsummit. Lannert's lawyer began petitioning for her release, and a key part of that request was an affidavit by Schulte. He would not let her go. Most significantly, I found forgiveness. Childrenwhodon'tknowhowtodefendthemselvesagainstadultswhoaresupport also argued that Lannert "spent wildly," forging her father's name on checks and using his credit cards before she took his life. But there is no evidence that he was sexually abusing.
