What living your truth is about, is living every day in action that is virtuous. Sometimes we have to struggle a long time before we awaken and listen to the truth within. It greatly helps us to see our reactions to certain thought processes or outside stimuli, and how those in turn effect our whole .
Beeverchanging, ever evolving. In my opinion, the cure lies in a simple formula. You don't take everything personally. Therefore, I invite you to discover the truth of what is, rather than what should be. It leads you to live the life you think others want you to. You may not even have to think about it. In your mind you are already deciding what to wear.
