Confessions of a Control Freak. likes. A comedy cabaret for the over-committed.

I'm a self-diagnosed control-freak. I've always been one. I'm the bossy firstborn in my family who had to be in control of everything that was.

The more we try to control, the more life gives us things to control - which in the end we cannot control - until whatever it is we try to control.

This immense and unlimited power cannot be grasped. The Universe possesses it.

The personal stories alone make this book worth reading. This intrinsic power is what you are letting go to. However, the auth Confessions of a Control Freak starts by giving us seven signs of a control freak:

Thanks for telling us about the problem. Imagine, in this moment only, you can let go of everything in your life - all your worries, obligations, roles, identities, stresses and everything .
