We are forever united by the intimate knowledge of the depravity man will stoop to. It is therefore worth considering the appeal of post-colonial counter-discourses to postcolonizing institutions, the way in which they are often too easily appropriated and assimilated by the very structures and discourses they seek to challenge. For Tocky, however, translating involves more than simply substituting one linguistic code for .

While there is clearly a need for such interrogation, I would want to interrogate. In performance contexts, the truth, if any, is in the telling. Visit our Help Pages.

But it is very much my task, perhaps even my moral obligation, to address how the post-colonial lives on the verandah because this is the space where the provisionality of language and the reality of experience can coincide. He made his visit in disguise, under a false name and carrying a false passport.
