The first time somebody tried to kill him was an accident. Hole has sunken further into his obsession with figuring out who killed his ex-partner and is still struggling to overcome his alcoholism.

The heatwave provides a rather unique twist on the cold gritty Nesbo thriller. I am now caught up with all of Nesbo's books that have been translated into English. This book couldn't have ended any better.

A good portion of the fun here is in trying to figure out who did it along with Harry. I read Nesbo's novels because I hoped to enjoy a great mystery.
