The Fiat was too distant to see yet, but Mercer knew he only had minutes before it reached. Get fast, free shipping with Amazon Prime. An instant later, feathers of dust exploded in the wake of the fleeing Toyota; mid-caliber machine-gun fire. Published 11 months ago. However, there was a rocky outcrop about fifty yards away that would be free of mines. Massive tissue trauma had killed him immediately, but ropes of blood still drooled from the ragged wounds, pouring onto Mercer, saturating. His whole body ached as his senses slowly returned.

Not only is this secret a cliché, it's explained. It starts out briskly, with an intro by Jack Du Brul. Throw in some mining technology, some history, geography, and African lore, and you have a highly satisfying read.
