GroaningSpinneyManWhoGrewTomatoes All the usual protagonists are in place, and the narrative hints towards Oh my gosh! Poor Noel is deathly afraid of the disconcerting woman, but smartly sticks by her until the tale's end. I did rather object to being informed repeatedly, in the mouths of different characters, that "women of that type" ie showgirls and other working-class lasses apparently don't mind being knocked about by their men, in fact they expect it.
