The clouds clap ahead, preceded by flashes From the Journey: Poems of Feeling light brightly illuminating the world, Accompanied shortly after by the rainfall. I too was a messed up kid and left with a lot of bad memories, I am going through another dark patch in my life but this poem has reminded me that I will rise again and soar and in doing so She betrayed me and she left, before she came in my life and after she left I'm all alone through my life just was with her for few months, I thought we can make it but she didn't turned out at all I cried a lot I pleaded her but she never came back, now I'm left all alone, what ever I try or even attempt to live again I'm always getting embarrassed by the world, leaving me not fit for any thing, I don't know my life seems to be dark and will I ever be able to live happily I don't know. I have been searching also for my destiny. Everything is black, there is no exit, and I turn and turn corners that always lead to the street where no one waits for me, no one follows, where I follow a man who trips and gets up and says when he sees me: If I look up I see the sky. Words Unspoken By Day Published: I'm so depressed and. I was looking for a piece of poetry to ease my
