On the other hand, spinsters who aged without marrying and thus had no children might decide to invest their modest assets in the credit market, perhaps to secure their old age. In November she married Antoine Betevy. For example, Sarah Hanley, "Engendering the State:

The author criticizes the view that women themselves have been property, and certainly, peasants could find other unofficial ways to locate available funds, but it seems that most of them preferred to sign a deed at the notary's rather than to lend money from hand to hand. Beyond the role of women in the credit market, some important patterns about the meaning of community and pre-capitalism are highlighted. Article PDF first page preview.
