Buy from other retailers. The focus of the story remains very much on Spud really, from the outset.

We quickly get introduced to the town and its denizens from the very first page.

The characters range from vicious, violent and stupid to downright passive and pathetic. I've owned this for some time but never really got into it then I picked it up cheap on my Kindle and following my kindle rule read it .

So much so that if I ever find it in a book sale I will pick it up no questions Poor Spud was tortured by his older sisters as a kid, and even earned his nickname thanks to. The secondary characters were pretty well done, too- from the stereotypical bumbling cop to the prim librarian and a lot of mean-spirited, nosy individuals thrown in for good measure.
